

8:00 am

Opening

Tom Rogers

President, Madera County Farm Bureau

Tom Rogers was elected to a second term as president in November 2010 for two years. Tom served his first term as president for Madera County Farm Bureau from 2000-2002. He attended California State University, Fresno and earned a degree in Agribusiness. He has been farming almonds on his family ranch for more than 35 years. Additionally, Tom has served on statewide Farm Bureau committees, and was Chairman of the Rural Health & Safety Committee for California Farm Bureau Federation for 4 years.